

Carroll R. Pauley Memorial Lecture in History
"Rights of Citizenship: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives on Race and Healthcare in America"

Thursday October 8th, 2015
7:00 p.m.

Great Plains Art Museum
1155 Q. St.
Lincoln, NE

Darlene Clark Hine
2013 National Humanities Medalist
Professor of African American Studies &
History, Northwestern University

Dr. Clark Hine is a leading historian of the African American experience who helped found the field of black women's history. A past-president of the Organization of American Historians, she is the Board of Trustees Professor of African American Studies and Professor of History at Northwestern. Her publications include The African-American Odyssey, Black Victory: The Rise and Fall of the White Primary in Texas, and The Harvard Guide to American History among others. She has been awarded fellowships and grants by the American Council of Learned Societies, the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences, the Ford Foundation, the National Endowment for the Humanities, the National Humanities Center, and the Rockefeller Foundation.

Co sponsored by Institute for Ethnic Studies, Department of English, African and African American Studies, Sheldon Museum of Art, and the Department of History