Reclaiming Democracy: Reflections on the Velvet Revolution
Dr. Paul Wilson

Dr. Paul Wilson will draw on his experiences in Czechoslovakia as a teacher, and later as a journalist, to look back at the origins of the collapse of communism in 1989, and examine some of the lessons to be learned from the Czech experience, over the past thirty years, of democratic renewal in a time of tumultuous social transformation.

Oct. 17, 2019
5:30–7:00 p.m.
Andrews Hall — Bailey Library
(228 ANDR)